People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever, Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

BCP page 355

The Celebrant may say

ALMIGHTY God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

When appointed, the following hymn or some other song of praise is sung or said, all standing

THE GLORIA

BCP page 356

GLORY to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.
Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP page 236

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

ALmighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

All sit.

THE FIRST READING Jeremiah 23:1-6

Reader A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

WOE TO the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the LORD. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the LORD.

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 46

Read in unison, the leader beginning with the first phrase and the people joining in the bolded text.

1 God is our refuge and strength, *
a very present help in trouble.

- 2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, *
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;
- 3 Though its waters rage and foam, *
and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.
- 4 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 6 God is in the midst of her;
she shall not be overthrown; *
God shall help her at the break of day.
- 7 The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken; *
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.
- 8 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 9 Come now and look upon the works of the LORD, *
what awesome things he has done on earth.
- 10 It is he who makes war to cease in all the world; *
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear,
and burns the shields with fire.
- 11 "Be still, then, and know that I am God; *
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted in the earth."
- 12 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

THE SECOND READING Colossians 1:11-20

Reader A reading from the Letter to the Colossians.

MAY YOU BE made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Luke 23:33-43

All stand

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

WHEN THEY came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. The people stood by, watching Jesus on the cross; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

THE SERVICE OF REDEDICATION AND SERVICE OF ADMISSION OF THE ORDER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING (See leaflet inserts)

THE NICENE CREED (All Stand)

BCP page 358

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Intercessor Let us pray to Christ enthroned on high, who gathers the scattered sheep and shepherds them that they may be fruitful and exercise justice and righteousness, saying Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For the Church: especially Michael our Presiding Bishop and Kevin our bishop, that in all times and places we may bear witness to God's reign of justice, love, and peace. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For this parish family, that we may recognize Christ in one another and respect the dignity of every person. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For those who were admitted yesterday to the Daughters of the King and for our St. Elizabeth of Hungary Chapter, that they may live lives of love, and be led by the Holy Spirit in their commitment to prayer, service, and evangelism. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For strong faith, that in times of chaos and confusion, we may be confident that Christ will defeat all evils, including death, and lead us to fullness of life with God. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For all elected officials, that they may follow the example of Jesus who served those in need and reached out to those who were forgotten. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For the healing of our nation, that God will heal our divisions and guide us toward a greater respect for one another, and renewed commitment to our common values. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For all who will celebrate Thanksgiving this week, that our hearts may be filled with gratitude for the gifts we have received and with generosity toward those in need. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For transgendered persons, that in the face of persecution and misunderstanding, they may know that they are beloved children of God and find hope and welcome in the beloved community of God's people. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For all who struggle with life's demands, particularly the poor, migrants and refugees, the homebound, and those in need of our prayers Jordan, Beverly & Frank, Edna, Martin, Naomi, Elaine, Jennifer, Beatrice, Lynn, Rich, Melvin, Mary Jane, Bill+, Jim, Robin, Francis, and Vinnie, Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

For all who have died, remembering especially, Helen and Joel, that they may be welcomed into eternal life and share in the joy of God presence forever. Sovereign God, hear our prayer.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary the God-bearer and all the saints, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ. Glory and Praise to you, O Sovereign God.

Celebrant Gracious Shepherd, by your grace you have raised us up and enthroned us with Christ in the heavenly realm. Hear the prayers we offer you this day and grant that we may know the kindness of your care and the riches of your glory, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Bishop, when present, or the Priest, stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another in the name of the Lord. In an effort to observe social distancing when passing of The Peace, we ask that you please remain in your pew and exchange with those immediately near you or with a wave or bow.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts, to the deacon or celebrant. The people stand while the offerings are presented and placed on the Altar.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant continues with the Preface:

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, People: Therefore let us keep the feast.

A period of silence is kept.

THE FRACTION ANTHEM

People and Celebrant

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

We welcome all baptized persons, regardless of age or denomination to receive communion at Saint Luke's. If you do not wish to receive communion, we invite you to come forward to a blessing. To show that you wish to receive a blessing, please cross your arms across your chest.

In a Pastoral Emergency, please contact—The Reverend Rebecca A. Barnes, Rector at 646-533-1836/e-mail at mthrbarnes@gmail.com. If you, or a family member, are in the hospital, a health care facility, or are home bound and would like to have a visit from Mother Barnes or a member of our Pastoral Care Committee, please contact the parish office. Due to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, commonly known as HIPAA, hospitals no longer automatically provide churches with names of admitted parishioners. If you or a family member are hospitalized or in a health care facility someone acting on your behalf will need to notify the church to assure that proper pastoral care may be offered. St. Luke's church complies with all HIPAA requirements and cannot provide personal information for sick or injured members without permission of the member or his or her close family member. Additionally, if you or a loved one are hospitalized or homebound and desire regular Eucharistic visitation, please notify the parish office. Eucharistic Visitations are customarily made once per month; weekly visits may be scheduled upon request.

Christian Education and Formation

► Intergenerational: Pilgrimage to the Palestine of Jesus: On Sunday, December 4th following coffee hour (approx.. 12:45PM), Mother Barnes and Mother Liz will offer a presentation at St. Luke's on their recent study pilgrimage to Jerusalem and their course at St. George's College. The program will include photos and stories from their trip and insights into the landscapes and narratives of Jesus and the three Abrahamic faiths that share this common region. The presentation will also be offered at St. Paul's, Montrose on Sunday, December 11 at 1:00PM.

► Children and Youth

Resources for Children: We have new welcome bags for our youngest attendees to enjoy during Mass. The bags are filled with sensory engaging toys and books and are available from an usher. Weekly lectionary materials are also available for our youngest members and visitors.

Sunday School: St. Luke's uses the GODLY PLAY, a Montessori-based curriculum with our younger children, ages five to ten years old. Sunday School is held at 9:30 AM every Sunday, except the first Sunday of the month.

Youth Confirmation Class – Our Youth Confirmation program is underway, with the launch of our yearlong confirmation program for our youth (ages 11-16) having been on Oct. 2 at 4PM in Kreidler Hall. We will be meeting monthly on the first Sunday of each month, October 2022 –May 2023. We are using the book, “My Faith, My Life”, a Teen’s Guide to the Episcopal Church. This program will preparation our older youth for confirmation next June. In subsequent years, we will be launching a new youth program “J2A: Journey to Adulthood in order to offer ongoing spiritual formation which allows our youth to adequately meet the needs of young people in the 21st century. For more information, to enroll your child, or to learn more about serving in any of our Sunday school or youth programs, please see Mother Barnes or email her at mthrbarnes@gmail.com or Rick Ammenhauser at imgold67@aol.com

Family Eucharist is held on the first Sunday of the month. The children and youth play a direct role in the worship service by serving as ushers, acolytes and lectors.

► Adult

Advent - “Journeying the Way of Love” The Way of Love: On Wednesdays following the midweek Eucharist, Mother Barnes will offer a short lunchtime Bible study using the Way of Love Advent resources from the Episcopal Church. This 4-week study will explore the first two chapters of the Gospel of Luke as we await the coming of Christ and help us understanding how we can live the Way of Love as individuals, as families and friends, as a community, and out in the world. Advent calendars: Advent calendars are available in the rear of the church. This year’s calendars accompany the “Journeying the Way of Love” curriculum and offer daily suggestions for engaging in the seven practices that encompass the Way of Love: turn, learn, pray, worship, bless, go, and rest. The calendar can also be used as a standalone resource—keep it at your desk or on your fridge and refer to it every day!

Lenten Retreat at Holy Cross Monastery - In March (March 21-24, 2023) a parish Lenten retreat is planned Holy Cross Monastery in the New York Hudson Valley. The suggested donation for the three days is $330 per person which will cover all lodging, program costs, and meals including breakfast and dinner the day of departure. Space is extremely limited and filling up fast! Please contact Mother Barnes ASAP to reserve a spot. Scholarship for those in need is available upon written request.

Centering Prayer Group: Each Thursday evening at 5:30PM an ongoing weekly Centering Prayer group meets. Centering Prayer is a contemplative form of prayer geared toward the cultivation of interior silence or “centering.” This form of prayer invites one to enter into a deeper relationship with God by being open and receptive to the presence and action of God in our lives. No prior experience is necessary. For more information, contact Mother Barnes at mthrbarnes@gmail.com or call the parish office.

► Thanksgiving Service: On Thursday, November 24, Thanksgiving Day Eucharist will be celebrated at 10AM at St. Luke’s.

► Fall Stewardship Campaign

Our Annual Fall Stewardship Campaign began on September 11, and concludes today, November 20th Christ the King Sunday, with the ingathering of pledges. Our program this year, as in years past, is an ongoing year-long program offered through The Episcopal Network for Stewardship (TENS). TENS has chosen the theme “More than Enough” as the theme for 2022/23.

As we emerge from this period of disruption and isolation in our congregations across the Episcopal Church, we have felt the pain and frustration of distance, of diminished resources, and of our ability to connect in the ways to which we are accustomed. However, as we take inventory of our spiritual resources, the strength of our community, and our capacity for generosity, we realize that there is now, and always has been, More Than Enough.

Jesus fed the multitude with five loaves and two fish - “And all ate and were filled. What was left over was gathered up, twelve baskets of broken pieces.” You will be hearing from me, our Senior Warden, the Stewardship Team, and others from the St. Luke’s community as we consider this theme more deeply and the blessings of abundance that we have, and share in, here at St. Luke’s.

► Women of St. Luke's Christmas Gala Luncheon: The Women of St. Luke's will host their Christmas Luncheon in the parish's Kreitler Hall on Saturday December 10, 2022 from noon to 3:00PM. The luncheon will be catered by Cooper's with your choice of three entrees: Sautéed Chicken Strips, Roast Stuffed Pork, or Broiled Orange Haddock. The dinner will include soup (Crab Bisque or Potato) a garden salad, potato, vegetable, and dessert. The festivities begin with a cocktail hour at 12:00PM with lunch served at 1:00PM. There will be entertainment, favors, door prizes and a cookie table, too. The cost is $25.00pp and reservations are due by December 4, 2022 to Kathy Selemba or Robin O'Hearn.

► Lackawanna County Prison Christmas Project For more than 20 years Anna Young was a dedicated volunteer in the Lackawanna County Prison and every Christmas she spearheaded a project to ensure that each inmate and staff member received a goody bag. Ms. Young is now in a nursing home and the community would like to honor her by continuing her Christmas giving. St. Luke's is participating in the program by collecting items that will be included in the "goody bags" and we ask that you would consider donating some of the listed items, or if you would prefer, you can make a financial contribution and the items will be purchased on your behalf. For security reasons, only the listed items can be included in the goody bags; do not stray from the list. Acceptable items include individual sized chewy trail mix, rice krispy bars, cookies, pop tarts, goldfish, cheez-its, skittles, starburst, Hershey's miniatures, Cup-O-Soups, kind bars, and mini muffins. Our goal is to provide 800+ goody bags; the list will be updated if other items are added. During the week of December 19th, we will gather to pack the bags for delivery to the prison later in the month. To make a monetary gift, or if you have any questions, please see Mother Barnes or Sharon Sollami.

MORE THAN ENOUGH

Advent: I am Enough, and Together We are More than Enough

Just as much as the season reminds us to be vigilant to the subtle signs of Christ's light as we once again anticipate and revel in the remarkability of Christ's birth and his return in the Second Coming, Advent is also about preparation for impactful giving – giving back to ourselves as well as to our communities. It's about recognizing where there is potential for energy renewal and restoration in our lives, in a world where we are often asked to operate on overdrive. Renewal and sustainability go hand in hand; to use our giving-energy sustainably means employing our awareness to our fullness as individuals first. In doing so, we can identify our actual capacities to give.

The theme for this year is more than enough. It is difficult in today's world to look for evidence of renewal and rebirth among very real threats of scarcity, depletion, and other forms of not enough-ness. For many of us, it can be especially hard to find enough-ness within our own bodies. The Advent season provides a context for this search because even in the darkest of hours, hopefulness for the future can be cultivated and energized anew when we pay close attention to our needs and the needs of our community.

We are all exhausted and overwhelmed by this year's own set of yet more unprecedented circumstances. But I am constantly and lovingly reminded by one of my dearest friends that our boundaries are bountiful. To give more than what we have, to exist in of a state of depletion, does not yield a sense of more than enough. The miracle, however, is that if each of us can identify and act upon the bounds and limitations of how much we can give, we can show up better for ourselves and those around us, authentically and less harmfully. If we give from a place of our embodied fullness, we are honoring our full humanity. We can then sustainably grow our capacity to give back to ourselves, as well as our communities and the land that we occupy.

This is what sustainable stewardship means to me: Giving from a place of our personal definition of plenty. Whatever that plentifulness may look like from person to person, is bountiful. And in this way, together we can be more than enough to do the collective healing work that needs to be done. | TENS.org

Questions For Reflection:

This Advent season is a beautiful time to turn our attention inwards and renew our commitments to tangible, impactful giving. What spiritual preparations and mindsets are necessary for you to practice sustainable giving and receiving, even beyond this season? What values and boundaries will you lovingly recommit to as you prepare for the year ahead?
